Richard Petz, brass teacher and trombonist. I am an experienced teacher both for children and adults, and I have a lot of fun doing it. If you would like to learn to play any brass instrument, I will be happy to guide you along the way. (The brass instrument family: Trumper, Horn, Trumpet, Trombone, Tuba, Euphonium)

Bio: I started playing the instrument at age 8. After winning several national competitions it became clear, I would like to be a musician. In 2011 I got accepted to the Mannes College of Music in New York. I studied in New York for four years and received my Bachelor of Music degree in 2015. I continued my musical studies with Prof. Wolfram Arndt in Munich at the Hochschule für Musik und Theater, where I received my Masters degree in 2017.

While studying in Munich I won the solo trombone audition for the Bavarian Police Orchestra, where I played for a year. In 2018 I started my music pedagogy studies Hochschule für Musik. In 2019 I was appointed as principal trombonist of the Hungarian State Orchestra in Budapest for a year.

Currently I am offering brass lessons at Phorms. Hope to see you there :)

Recorder (Blockflöte) and Piano Lessons:

Charlotte Villinger

Monday - Friday
